

TRAUMAS OF LAW ENFORCEMENT

Each year, Concerns of Police Survivors (C.O.P.S.) provides training to America's law enforcement agencies on how to appropriately respond to officers and their families affected by line-of-duty deaths at each Traumas of Law Enforcement training. Instructors will present information and provide resources that are crucial to America's law enforcement. Appropriate response to line-of-duty death, on-the-job stressors and police suicide will be covered. C.O.P.S. provides this vital 21-hour training free of charge.
